

Index

11	Acknowledgments
14	1. The Observatory in international context
30	2. Evolutions in the context
33	2.1. Introduction
36	2.2. World
48	2.3. Europe
56	2.4. Portugal
74	2.5. Considerations about public policies
88	2.6. Legislative evolution
112	3. Current topics under analysis: ESG and SDGs under debate: Where they intersect and how they differ
115	3.1. What is the origin of the ESG vs. the Sustainable Development Goals concept?
	3.2. What are ESG criteria?
116	3.3. ESG and SDG: main differences and implications
128	3.4. General conclusions on the topic
130	3.5. What considerations can be taken to open the debate?
131
134	4. Implementation of the SDGs in Portuguese companies
137	4.1. . Scientific investigation
142	4.2. Other national and international studies
152	4.3. Interviews with experts and new developments in the implementation of the SDGs
158	5. Evolutionary analysis of the study
150	5.1. Aggregate analysis: Characterization of the companies under study
184	5.2. Comparative analysis: Year 1 versus Year 2
282	5.3. Gap analysis
296	5.4. . Variability analysis between groups
336	6. Good Practices identified
340	6.1. Processes of SDGs integration into business strategies
349	6.2. Incorporation and reporting the SDGs in the Sustainability Reports
363	6.3. Structuring Practical Cases associated with the SDGs
367	6.4. Communicating Practical Cases core to the business
391	6.5. Presentation of Practical Cases in partnership
394	7. Conclusion
400	8. Methodology
440	Annex 1:
	Does Portuguese companies' contribution to the SDGs meet what Portuguese society expects?	